Good Shot Judy December 3, 2023 3:00pm Mathews High School Auditorium

Brothers Brett and Jeff Cahoon stepped away from the success they'd achieved with their punk band Ten Years from Now and chose instead to see what they could do with the old-time jazz standards they'd admired for so long. The Cahoons filled out Good Shot Judy with a full complement of horns, percussion and vocals. And magic happened: an ensemble that was bigger than the sum of its parts.

In a sense, Good Shot Judy was already in the stars long ago, during those formative decades from the 1930s on, when small jazz combos, big brass bands and the crooners who sang on top of them were forging an enduring style.

Good Shot Judy is today a big amp jazz band that sets stages aflame nationwide. Audiences are captivated by the sound and spectacle of music that reaches through the time. They're caught up in performance that has one foot dancing in the past and one in the here and now.
